

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/30/2021 10:59:47 PM

First name: Nora

Last name: Howard

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Development on these lands without the consent and input of the indigenous population is an injustice and a disgrace. Any development must be made with full communication with these populations. Further, and environmental impact assessment MUST be made. It is laughable to think that a development designed to draw tourists would have "minimal" environmental impact considering the codependent development that will inevitably occur should this project be implemented.