Comments: It is not possible that they wanted to expel the wild horses from the lands in which they were born. They are therefore owners of said lands. They are Native Americans. What they want is to give land to the murderers of the "rancheros", "farmers" who kill innocent animals. It is abominable. They are killing wild horses and donkeys. They are killers.

No to the appropriation of public lands.

The Heber wild horses have been the target of illegal hunting since 2018. The Forest Service must work harder to protect these federally protected wild horses from harm and to find the Additionally, the last population survey in the Territory found that many of the horses were outside of the Territory boundary. Instead of immediate removal, the Forest Service should make every effort to relocate those horses within the boundary.

God's justice for animals.
