

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/5/2021 10:31:43 PM

First name: IAN F

Last name: WALTON

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It seems the BLM are looking through the wrong end of the telescope. They should be reducing the amount of livestock grazing on public land.

I would advocate for the appropriation of funds to compensate family farms for the removal of grazing rights payable over the next twenty years to allow the children of current farmers to choose a less destructive career. Any agribusiness or limited companies should not receive compensation. They have raped the land long enough.