Comments: As a frequent visitor to Alaska I would like to express my deep support of Points North Heli Skiing(PNH). The ability to access the amazing terrain is unlike anywhere else in the world. The reason I come visit Alaska is to visit these amazing places that are only accessible via a helicopter.

Points North Heli Skiing is filled with experienced and talented guides that keep myself and all the guests safe and confident in a great experience. I have skied all over the world and I can say PNH is without question one of the best operators in the industry.

Finally, being able to visit Cordova and the incredible people of the town has added to enjoyment of any trip with PNH.
