Comments: My name is Nathan Stone, I have been coming to Cordova for the winter season, 18 years and counting. This community and land has become a way of life for me. I change and schedule my life plans to return to this wonderful place. The ocean, forest and mountains that this environment offers is near and dear to my heart. I have made my life commitment to my wife Jessie Marchesseau in these very mountains.

I have enjoyed the trails, glaciers, mountains and all that Cordova Alaska has to offer with people from all over the world. This place has made so many bonds and friendships that I can't hardly keep track of them. The common interest of skiing makes it easy to build these friendships but the undeniable magnitude and beauty of the Alaskan mountains and forest make this place truly magical. I wish to share and educate my clients, friends and family on the forest land for as long as possible.

Cordova and these mountains have sculpted me from a young wild bright eyed kid to an old wild bright eyed person. It has pushed me to educate myself and better myself to understand, respect and navigate the true rawness and beauty that these lands require. I am a guide for Points North Heli, Cordova is my home away from home, I am blessed to be a member of this community and a steward of the surrounding lands, ocean and mountains.
