

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/14/2021 10:18:50 PM

First name: Rama

Last name: Polefka

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am opposed to proposed changes. I demand that the agency fully account for the impacts of permitted livestock grazing through a public and transparent rule making process.

The Forest Service should focus on conservation rather than exploitative use for livestock. Anyone permitted to graze should be held FULLY ACCOUNTABLE to restore any land used back to the non-impacted state. Livestock grazing should absolutely not take precedence or conflict whatsoever with restoration and recovery of imperiled or threatened species.