

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 5:09:24 PM

First name: Eliot

Last name: Moss

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I write because I am particularly concerned about possible negative impacts of grazing on wilderness and our National Forests. Grazing by domestic animals is incompatible with maintaining wilderness in its most wild and natural / undistributed state. Meanwhile, grazing in National Forests degrades our public lands, and much of that land is poorly suited to grazing anyway. I urge you to follow the interests of the land and of the public over those of ranchers in this case.