

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 5:09:49 PM

First name: Jane

Last name: Alexander

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Domestic cattle and sheep grazing on the public lands is destroying the environment. Natural predators are being hunted because the ranchers don't want them killing their livestock. Wolves don't distinguish prey. Plants are overrun which depletes a natural food source for animals that would normally be found on the land. It creates a vicious cycle. How much more damage do we need to do before we learn. It will take the environment countless years to recover from the damage.