

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 5:34:14 PM

First name: Monica

Last name: Gilman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Forest Service's proposed revisions to Rangeland Management Directives expand grazing across our National Forests and within Wilderness by directing vacant allotments to be fully restocked and by returning grazing to the excessive levels permitted in the 1960s, despite conditions that cannot support increased grazing.

Please refrain from any more grazing plans in order to protect our remaining rangelands.