

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 6:19:01 PM

First name: John

Last name: Altshuler

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think it has become a well-known point if not fact that grazing on public lands degrades the land. I think going forward that you and other services dealing with public property need to recognize that the land needs to be kept pretty much the way it is without a lot of interference from you or me or any others. In any event compliance with the current law is essential. Remember the importance of looking forward and not falling into the trap of short-term thoughtless gains.