

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 6:35:17 PM

First name: Bill

Last name: Blessing

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The best Rangeland Management policy would be to retire all leases as they expire, first in wilderness and eventually all forested public lands. If leases are continued they should be at market rate, not a form of "corporate welfare". Most Americans want more nature conservation and less unhealthy red meat and methane-producing grazing.