

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 7:12:08 PM

First name: Kevin

Last name: Teeple

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

The idea of holding public land in trust is generally accepted to mean it is preserved for future generations. To ignore this intent in the name of short term profits is abandoning the obligation we have to descendants. The only excuse for this myopic attitude is greed. This is not how we should be remembered.