

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 7:31:22 PM

First name: Robert

Last name: Handelsman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose public lands being used for extractive industries unless, in those rare situations, the extractive industries have little or no effect on quiet recreational use such as hunting, fishing, camping, hiking, etc. Grazing should not be allowed where it had adverse effects on the land, which is almost every case. And where it is allowed, it should be leased at market rates instead of being subsidized by the Government