Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 9:30:24 PM
First name: Stephen
Last name: Hackney
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Rangeland and wilderness are not compatible uses, period. Our wilderness areas are so designated and managed to minimize activity, road building, supporting cattle on grasslands, motorized vehicle activity, hunting and other types of industrial activity. No degrading processes are permitted on lands that are designated as wilderness. Any future plans to permit cattle grazing for profit enterprises is actually stealing that wilderness experience for the citizens of our country. We need to stop the damage to our wilderness.