

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/16/2021 10:53:15 PM

First name: Suzanne

Last name: Jones

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I do not believe that cattle grazing on National Forest Land or on land designated as Wilderness should ever be permitted, especially since there is little to no compensation for damages done to these areas. The Trump administration was misguided in allowing this activity to go forward. Please keep our Wilderness areas as pristine as possible for future enjoyment of all Americans and National Forests preserved in a natural state.