

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/17/2021 12:45:38 AM

First name: Bob

Last name: Seibert

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please DO NOT adopt the proposed changes to the Grazing Management Directives. These changes would certainly increase the number of animals grazing on National Forest lands, including wilderness lands. I have managed public lands as a government employee for more than thirty years. I've seen the excessive damage that livestock grazing has done to public lands. We need less grazing, not more on most land, especially in lands with more restrictive and protective designations....like Wilderness.