

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/17/2021 12:36:44 PM

First name: Cindy

Last name: Hatcher

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Greetings. The Rangeland Management Directives are an outmoded system that directly and negatively impacts wildlife and wild places. Allowing those lands to lie fallow would promote biodiversity of native plant and animal species. Expanding livestock grazing would be counterproductive in maintaining our National Forests. Thank you for your time and consideration.