Comments: I generally support this proposal. I could not differentiate between the pale yellow and pale green colors on the gray background as shown in the Summit Daily paper, so could not see those trails already approved (but not yet constructed?). My only concern is whether trails already approved will be constructed, but it is easy to understand that requesting more approvals allows Frisco to be flexible in implementation. I rather consider the peninsula area a "sacrifice" area ever since land exchange moved a good portion of it into town ownership.
