

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/17/2021 3:22:29 PM

First name: Karen

Last name: Hildebrand

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I appreciate the opportunity to comment on the up-grades to the range management guidelines. As a frequent visitor to the National Forests in the western states, I am concerned with the degradation of the natural habitat - particularly native plants and water sources. Wildlife within National Forests must not be pushed aside by herds of cattle and sheep.

As revisions to guidelines are made, take the opportunity to consider and give appropriate weight to the reasons for the original creation of our National Forests.