Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/18/2021 3:54:02 AM
First name: Alicja
Last name: Nichols
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I am urging the Forest Service to do the right thing for the Wilderness and the Public Lands by dropping the Rangeland Management Directives. This administrative proposal will expand already excessive levels of grazing, further degrade the critical watersheds which is fundamentally at odds with Wilderness and fuel the climate and biodiversity crises.
If Forest Service wishes to change its directives it needs to comply with the National Environmental Policy Act.