

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/18/2021 6:51:29 PM

First name: Ashley

Last name: Williams

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The horses are a staple to what makes Arizona beautiful, wild and unique. Taking away the Heber wild horses will not only diminish the natural beauty of this state but it is also a atrocity to the citizens and visitors who come specifically to see them. We have absolutely no right to decide anything for them. They should stay in the land that they have lived for way longer than Arizona has been a state. This is their land, not ours.