Comments: Please these are part of our American Heritage. Let's not toss away all that Velma Johnston (Wild Horse Annie) fought for. Don't forget the Wild Free-Roaming Horse and Burro Act (P.L. 92-195) where these amazing animals won their freedom.

As another contributor stated: "The number of horses you plan to leave is too small for them to survive there and your calculations do not take in account all the land the horses use including reservation land. Please stop pleasing only special interests and do what is best for wildlife, wild places and Americans"
