

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/20/2021 11:24:03 PM

First name: Rebecca

Last name: Knox

Organization:

Title:

Comments: If AML's are only an estimate, that means that only guesswork rather than science is driving these removals. There is science based evidence that wild horses are beneficial for a forest floor devoid of fuel for fires and for reseeding areas that they travel through.

No action is required to reduce the wild horse population at this time and a veritable management plan should be reworked.