

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/21/2021 2:25:20 AM

First name: Laura

Last name: Singleton

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Regarding the HWHT Management Plan, I do believe the Salt River Wild Horse Management Group has a good model for management of wild horses on public/federal, National Forest lands. I realize there are regional differences in landscape, forage, ecosystem and stakeholders, land permittees but there appear to be solid methods that would work in ASNF. I also add that contraception and the gelding of select stallions is a reasonable approach to some population control.