Comments: All wild animals, especially these wild horses, need to be protected and preserved at all costs for the good of the present and future generations. We humans have done enough to destroy the native habitats of these wild creatures, almost to a point of no return!

Enough of foolish decisions and bills passed by our so-called legislators and politicians. You are all guilty of destroying Mother Earth and her precious creatures!

These beautiful horses need to be protected and left alone in their current habitat without any interference from you so-called "experts"!!!

Time to leave well alone and "get out of Dodge!"
