

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/27/2021 3:24:45 PM

First name: Peter

Last name: Benchimol

Organization:

Title:

Comments: These shelters are a critical part of my annual pilgrimage to Tuckerman ravine for early season ice climbing and mountaineering. Typically, a group of 4-5 of us will drive up from New York the weekend before thanksgiving and climb in this alpine playground before it fills with snow. They provide a service to many other like minded alpinists and skiers in the winter months. Traditional three sided shelters lack the adequate protection provided by the sliding doors. Please do not remove these