

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/27/2021 5:23:20 PM

First name: Catherine

Last name: Lang

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am a hiker who has hiked many times in the Presidential Range. It's a spectacular area. I understand the need for thinning trees, but please don't clearcut any areas. That is neither necessary for the forest nor a good idea for the public for which this is a popular hiking/backpacking/tourist location. If lumber needs to be collected, can't it be from a less popular and less scenic location?