

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/27/2021 9:09:39 PM

First name: Maureen

Last name: Castruccio

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Any disruption to the watershed on the eastern Sierra has proven to be devastating. Why would we want any more? How would mining near ANY body of water esp one where trout spawn naturally? What ministry benefit would this project bring to the area, that outdoor enthusiasts and fishermen and women don't already bring season after season? The answer is nothing good, except another scar on earths surface, and one in one of the most beautiful and unique places on this continent.