

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/18/2021 5:29:19 PM

First name: Debra

Last name: Kaye

Organization:

Title:

Comments: While I generally think that improving access to natural resources is a good idea, in this case the goals seem to contradict each other. Increased access through more parking and additional amenities will bring more people while, at the same time therefore, more people will want to swim in the Blue Pool. The Forest Service considers this area to be a sufficient hazard that it wants to make it unavailable. It seems that this is destined to fail.