

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/27/2021 4:10:17 PM

First name: Cody

Last name: Harris

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe it is in the best interest of wildlife and the environment as a whole for the USFS to manage our public lands and forest with select clearing or thinning to enhance the landscape. I have seen the benefits of this practice when hunting for ruffed grouse. There is such a benefit to having a good balance of early successional forest in the Southern Appalachian Mountains.