Comments: As of March 27, 2021, I became a new goat owner. Never did I think I would ever own such creatures. I thought they were dumb like sheep and really weird. They are weird, but the best hiking companions I've ever had! They love me and I love that they carry my extra gear up to the top of the mountains. Within the short time that I have owned them, I've made sure that they are very healthy. Using the best feed, medicines and vaccinating them on schedule. As a responsible goat owner and an experienced avid outdoorsman, it would make more sense to me to ban dogs and horses from all our forests before even considering banning goats. They have way more of an impact on their surroundings that goats ever would.
