Comments: I cannot remember if/when I commented on this proposed land exchange[mdash]and I have a strong feeling, my objection will 'not matter'[mdash]but it appears as if the wealthy denizens of the area[mdash]in this case, Kelcy Warren[mdash]get whatever they want, while the public is left the 'dregs.'

respectfully+sorrowfully submitted (please see some of his other mansions below) (he only paid $46mil for BootJack-see link below--so I could see he wouldn't have much influence over the government or individuals in adding to his holdings[mdash]haha)
