

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/12/2021 9:40:42 PM

First name: Dita

Last name: Škalic

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe that dying and dead trees are an essential part of wilderness. They have some important roles in the ecosystem and belong to the visitors' experience. They should be left there and warning signs should be posted to warn visitors of them. Where there are fallen trees blocking the trails, it would be better to remove them without using chainsaws to prevent noise pollution.