

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/13/2021 5:13:45 AM

First name: Pat

Last name: Copenhaver

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We need to leave the oldest forests alone. They are carbon sinks, trapping carbon in the atmosphere in the ground and in their roots. We can't wait for new forests to grow thousands of years old to that their place. If we want to save our planet now, we have to act now!