

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/15/2021 4:54:18 PM

First name: Sandra

Last name: Mooney

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I strongly oppose the use of chainsaws for any reason whatsoever in Wilderness areas. Dead trees play an important role in any natural ecosystem, even becoming nurse trees for younger ones.

If trees need to be remove on trails, then please use crosscut saws.

There are not many wilderness areas left, and the ones that are should be left wild. If people want to experience wilderness, let them do so at their own risk, so that all species can thrive.