

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/16/2021 1:23:19 AM

First name: Susan

Last name: Westervelt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Wilderness Act protects wildlands from logging, it protects wildlands from the use of motorized vehicles, motorized equipment, and actions that compromise the wildness. Trees die and fall over, fire happens, creeks blow out their banks - all of this is natural occurrence. The forest service needs to just leave it alone. I don't even care if people can access wilderness. It may be the only place that is safe for wildlife.