

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/4/2021 2:51:28 PM

First name: Joel

Last name: Clemmer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Turning a Scientific and Natural Area into a private ski development does not pass the sniff test. It smells rotten and further detail really is not needed. The Forest Service is supposed to take the long view on the use of our lands. This would not be in the citizens' long term interest, only that of one recreation corporation and their select customers.

Come On -- get real. This stinks and you (hopefully) know it.