Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/7/2021 7:53:38 AM
First name: Linda
Last name: Carroll
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I write in opposition to the plan amendment to violate the requirement of a buffer zone protecting the leks of critically endangered sage grouse to accommodate the private profit-making of cattle owners. It is the Forest Service's solemn obligation and responsibility to the American people to whom this land belongs to uphold the law protecting our distinctive American sage grouse. Leks are vital to the survival of this endangered species-that is the reason for the law requiring their protection.