Comments: The proposed ski hill expansion into the the Scherer Conservation Unit of the SNA would be contrary to the intent of contributor Lloyd Scherer to conserve this area and keep it open to hikers. Once the nine new chairlifts are erected and the new chalet is built at the top of the mountain, only people who can pay the price of a lift ticket will be allowed through the gates. It's also very important to note that this area is within the boundaries of the 1854 Treaty lands, where Band members at Grand Portage, Fond du Lac and Bois Forte retain usufructuary rights to hunt, fish and gather resources, as guaranteed by the Treaty of 1854.
