I have gone to Lutsen ever since I was young.

Once or twice a year.

In the past 10 or 15 years every time we go not all the runs are open and only a couple chair lifts are running...

It is a great place to ski and big enough already that they obviously don't need to open it all at once. Even if there is a high school race they don't open more runs or lifts.

I don't feel it is not worth the cost which will deflect onto the skiers. Also, once we take away our beautiful green space it is gone for good!

We already drive to Montana to ski because it is cheaper to ski and stay there than go to Lutsen for a few days..

I think you will just price yourself out of business.

Sincerely,

Jane Rhodes
