Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/26/2021 6:31:29 AM
First name: Philip
Last name: Ratcliff
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I wonder why the Forest Service is concerned with how cattle get their water, while grazing on public land. Why is the Forest Service making accommodations for the owners of cattle that graze on public land? This is part of the subsidies that cattle owners receive. The owners pay a pittance for the privilege of cattle grazing, and the taxpayers pick up the major part. Special interests prevail once again.