

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/11/2022 6:53:22 PM

First name: kim

Last name: davis

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Except in those instances where actual danger from falling trees is evident to anyone, including the most conservative viewer, I encourage that trees be left standing to aid in the regrowth of forests, protection of waterways and to provide habitat for wildlife. The more roads closed the better. We need to protect what is left! We cannot allow timber or recreation industries to dictate management of forests. Let the biologists and ecologists do that. Protect both standing and fallen trees, for future generations.