Comments: I object to this proposed trail. It is overkill. There are already many, many improved trails in the area and already too many recreationalists. Don't invite more to come ruin the valley. Wildlife is already stressed and declining, traffic is already terrible in the summer and trash/human waste/dog waste is already a problem along the highway corridor and main hiking trailheads so why encourage more people and more use? People don't and won't follow the rules, which will lead to more tax monies needed for clean up, maintenance and enforcement.
