Comments: First off all, please don't treat us like children with the disingenuous phrase "Post-Disturbance". We all know the Forest Service isn't managing the land properly, or else we wouldn't be experiencing these megafires.

As far as this project, I support it because the hazardous trees much be removed.

As a retired Forest Service employee, I know one of the most difficult fires to put out is a snag that laying in a thick brush field. So I do not support falling and leaving snags in those areas.
