

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/4/2022 8:23:06 PM

First name: Jean

Last name: Marquardt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I live near where the Dixie fire ravaged the forest last year. I would like to see that the forest service would be very careful and cutting down trees that may still be alive after the fires. There's no need for clearcutting. There needs to be careful environmental review before the forest service takes down trees and even the areas around the roads. Thank you for your work.