

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/7/2022 5:10:50 PM

First name: Ben

Last name: Spitzley

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Taos Ski Valley has, many times over, proven to place the concerns of the business far above environmental impact. The snowmaking practices already in place at the ski valley are a danger to water levels and is not a sustainable practice. This corporation effectively uses loopholes and excuses to justify their water usage and clear-cutting. This cannot be allowed to continue. This community desperately needs to hold the ski valley accountable by conducting thorough environmental impact studies and enforcing more sustainable practices.