

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/10/2022 1:51:02 AM

First name: CURT

Last name: WEST

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have a serious concern regarding the 5 million gallon water tank. New Mexico remains in drought conditions amidst wildfires in the Sangre De Cristo's. The risk to historical acequias and the communities and wildlife supported by the Rio Hondo is great as water becomes more scarce in our state. Recreation and tourism are fine, however if there is not enough water to support our local communities the ski valley will be an island for the wealthy to enjoy.