Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/18/2022 11:21:37 AM
First name: David
Last name: Kessler
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I object to this project. Mining has been ravaging the landscape in southern AZ for a century. Clearly there is an expectation of subsequent permanent mining, which is diametrically opposed to the purpose for which public land like this has been set aside. All this project will accomplish is helping the miners determine how their budget for buying political support when they propose the next phase.