

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/25/2022 4:40:07 PM

First name: jeff

Last name: kipilman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: - danger tree removal should be limited to dying danger trees that have a high probability of failure within 5 years and are within striking distance of the road - douglas fir 20" in diameter or more at breast height should be retained to become habitat for the endangered species spotted owl and red tree vole - minimize impacts in designated Wild and Scenic river corridors - meaningful consultation and honoring of treaty rights with the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs and Confederated Tribes of the Grande Ronde