

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/5/2022 6:01:48 PM

First name: Anne

Last name: Woodbury

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Saving our mature, old-growth forests is imperative if we want to leave functioning ecosystems to our children and grandchildren. There is literally no replacement for old-growth woodlands. Lumber products can easily be obtained from younger trees. "Elders" should be left in place. Forest ecosystems are among the most complex webs.

This issue is very important to me!